MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Mr. Frank Holtzclaw and Miss Annie L. Underwood will be married at Mr. Wm. Underwood's to day. He is 21 and she is just 17.

—It is said that Senator David B. Hill will soon renounce bachelorhood and marry a beautiful widow, Mrs. Fannie Iversen, of Atlanta, Ga.

—Mr. George L. Wallis, the Louisville Times' bright, brainy and bald-headed Legislative correspondent, and Miss Ruth, daughter of Maj. H. T. Stanton, are to be married Dec. 14.

—John F. Herndon, a prominent and wealthy citizen of Fayette, has brought suit against his wife, who was a Miss Ford, daughter of the proprietor of Ford's Hotel, Richmond, Va. for divorce, alleging abandonment.

—Wm. Walters went to the room in which his betrothed, Miss Emily Davis, lay dead at Wilkesbarre, Pa., and taking a vial of strychnine from his pocket said "Good-bye, Emily, I'll soon be with you." He then swallowed the poison and was dead in 10 minutes.

—Miss Leona Lott, of Paris, Miss, fully demonstrated the fickleness of her sex last week. She eloped with Layfayette Stude and when he went for the license another lover came along and she flew with him. He left her at a friend's residence while he sought the license. In the mean time Wilbur Griffin put in an appearance and claiming that she had promised him first she eloped with him and was finally duly married Mrs. Griffin.

—The marriage of Mr. R. C. Ford, cashier of the First National Bank of London and an excellent gentleman, and Miss Emma Letitia Garrard was duly solemnized at Manchester Thursday, Nov. 11. Mr. McKee, of Danville, officiating. The bridesmaids were Miss Mahan, Danville; Miss Louise Bailey, Stanford, and Miss White, Manchester. The groomsmen were, James Garrard, brother of the bride, James White, Manchester, and E. K. Wilson, London. The bride is a daughter of Gen. T. T. Garrard and a most lovely and cultivated lady, who has many friends here who wish her bon voyage on the sea of matrimony. Mr. and Mrs. Ford will spend their honeymoon in Florida and be at home to their friends after Jan. 1.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Rev. W. E. Arnold will preach at McKendree Sunday.

—Rev. A. S. Moffatt held a meeting at Providence, Mercer county, which brought two sons into the fold.

—Rev. John Bell Gibson has had a flattering call from the new Christian church at Owensboro, but he has not decided yet whether or not he will accept it.

—It is said that the Cardinal Consistory will take place at the Vatican December 10, when it is expected that the Pope will create 13 cardinals. There are 17 vacant Cardinalates.

—Six persons were baptized and received into the Methodist church at Neal's Creek, Sunday. This makes 10 as the result of the recent meeting conducted by Revs. Early and Daughette.

—There were two additions to the Christian church Sunday—Messrs. E. H. Jones and Walter Saunders. The young gentlemen are to be commended for taking a rational step in a quiet and business-like way, without excitement or other attendant instigation, except a plain duty.

—Rev. R. B. Mahony will preach at the Methodist church Sunday morning and Rev. R. H. Caldwell at night. Prayer meeting at same church each night this week beginning with Thursday night. On Monday, 21st, Rev. J. R. Doering, of Versailles, will be here to continue the meeting.

—Elder J. S. Sweeney, pastor of the Christian church, Paris, has been appointed a member of the Advisory Council on Religious Congresses of the World's Congress Auxiliary in connection with the Columbian Exposition of 1893. This means to assist in preparing the programme and directing the proceedings of the World's Parliament of Religion.

—The General Association of Kentucky Baptists are in session at Covington with a large majority of the preachers present. The statistics read show that in 1792 there were 35,100 Baptists in the U. S., while in 1892 the number is 3,263,806. The baptisms for the past year for Kentucky were 16,247. The money collected for foreign missions in the United States was $21,907 in the last year, while $653,244 was secured for home mission work. The church is now sustaining 36 colleges and universities, eleven theological seminaries and 114 other educational establishments.

—Clinton Eider, of Covington, who held a responsible position with a firm in that city, has a mania for picking pockets and at times cannot resist the temptation. He tried it on a lady the other day and the judge before whom he was tried thought it best to give him a little confinement so gave him a year in the penitentiary.

—Ground was broken at Atlanta, Ind., for the largest tin plate factory in the world.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Miss Ella Watson was called to Louisville Saturday on business connected with the post-office.

—The town trustees met Saturday and appointed James I. Hamilton chief of police. He will serve until the election next November.

—Miss Jane Hopper has received from her sister, Mrs. El Stephens, of Midland, Texas, a box of fine vegetables. Miss Jane kindly remembered the L. J. scribbles.

—The Garrard County Bible Society will meet at the Methodist church next Sunday night. As all the churches are interested in this society, there will be no union services held that night.

—Thanksgiving services will be held at the Presbyterian church. There will be no regular sermon, but the minister of each church will take part and the services will consist of appropriate music and, to use the language of one of our ministers, "sermonettes." All are cordially invited to attend.

—Miss Maud Robinson is visiting Misses Maudie and Carrie Currey. Robt. Dunn, of Danville, was here Sunday. Mr. Will Berkele, of Louisville, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives here. Mrs. Will Marks and Mr. Sam Anderson are here, having been called to the bedside of their mother. Miss Lettie Brown, of Lexington, is visiting her grand mother, Mrs. Bettie Beazley. Miss Hattie Vaughan, of Shelbyville, is the guest of Mrs. W. O. Bradley. Mr. Fisher Gaines has accepted a position in Guiney's grocery. Mr. H. A. B. Marksbury and Malcolm Tillet are in Lexington on business. Misses Bright, of Stanford, are visiting Miss Lizzie Thompson. Mr. Will Hutelings and wife spent Sunday with Mrs. C. C. Stormes.

—We stated in our last letter that the circuit clerkship was claimed by both Broadbuss, republican, and Mason, democrat. The case came up before the board Saturday and the certificate was given to Broadbuss. It seems that in adding up the votes in one of the Bryansville precincts, the officers failed, or forgot to count, several votes for Mason.

The next day after the certificate was issued and the ballots destroyed one of the judges, a republican, remembered the failure to count the vote for Mason and called the attention of the other officers of the precinct to the fact and a new certificate was issued. Of course the board to issue the certificates of election, viz: the county judge, sheriff and county clerk, could not go behind the certificate issued at the time the ballots were counted and had to give the certificate of election to Broadbuss. The votes that were forgotten or neglected to be counted for Mason would give him a majority of four. We do not know at this writing whether Mr. Broadbuss will accept the office or not, but Mr. Mason will contest it in case he does. If Mr. Broadbuss refuses to accept the place there will be a vacancy and the circuit judge will have to appoint a clerk to serve until the next general election, which will be in November, 1893.

The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette tries to be as happy as possible under adverse circumstances, as the following paragraphs.

Bourke Cockran discovered that the tumultuous popularity of Cleveland endured even through election day.

The Thanksgiving turkey remains to us as well as for the democrats. So we have something to live for after all.

After marching through Mr. Watterson's slaughter house, the democratic party neglected to tumble into its open grave.

Texas has such a big democratic majority that it can afford two democratic candidates for governor and give each of them an equal vote than the combined opposition can give its candidate.

They talk about a woman's sphere. As though it had a limit.

There's not a place in earth or heaven, There's not a task to mankind given, There's not a blessing or a woe, There's not a whisper, yes or no, There's not a life, or death, or birth, That has a feather's weight of worth.

The sun gives 600,000 times as much light as the full moon; 7,000,000,000 times as much as the brightest star in the sky and 30,000,000 times as much as the combined stars of the heavens.

The limit of the capacity of the earth is 5,291,000,000 souls, says a scientist, and this number will be reached in less than 187 years.

There are scales in the Boston assay office so delicate that they indicate the ten-millionth part of a pound.

LIBERTY, CASEY COUNTY.

—The vote of Casey county was calculated this morning with the following results: The republican candidates for county offices have carried the county with the following majorities: For circuit clerk, Jas. Gibson over Ed Sweeney 185; James Branson, for sheriff, over Geo. Frye 191; for jailer, Brown over Staton 192. For circuit judge of the 20th district, Wallace Jones' majority over Craddock is 183. Silas Adams for Congress, carries Casey county by 216 majority. Maudie, for commonwealth's attorney, without opposition, gets 1,228 votes. Harrison's vote was 1,323 and Cleveland's 1,039, Harrison's majority 184. [His majority in '88 was some eighty odd.] Party lines were very strictly drawn. People's party received 20 votes and prohibition 77. On election day everything was done quietly and in good humor, but both parties were busy. F. P. Combest, for representative, without opposition, received 1,235 votes. From a letter from Wallace Jones, to-night, it is learned that he carried the 20th judicial district by 1,212 majority. The great Cleveland cyclone, which has swept the country with devastation in its course, has not hurt this district.

—Hogs are selling at 5 cents in Garrard.

—Jack Hook, the veteran turfman, died at Paris, aged 70.

—Bonner has fully decided to put Maud S. to work again and next season beat Nancy Hanks' time with her. Nancy Hanks has certainly had advantages that were never dreamed of when Maud S. made the world's record she held so long.

—The International Packing and Provision Co. are to be consolidated. They will have a capacity for killing 12,500 hogs a day and it is said the output will be twice that of the big Armour concern.

—Parson Arney, of Saranac, who has gained notoriety through his inclination toward the trotting horse, has announced his retirement from the turf. He owns a number of well bred trotters and has gone many a mile better than 2:30 and in races at that. He will preach at Three Rivers in the future.

—J. W. Ferguson shipped to Goldsmith, at New York, Thursday 50 Christ mas cattle, 1,700-pound average, the last of 70 head sold by him, at about 5¢. Of the last lot 20 weighed over 2,000 lbs. each. The Paris Kentuckian also notes sales of 40 shipping cattle at 1:30.

—The struggle between Stamboul and Kremlin for the stallion record has been quite animated. The former held it for a long time and until Kremlin's recent performance at Nashville. Last week Stamboul again took the record in 2:08, but Kremlin again wrested it from him at Nashville, Saturday, doing the mile in 2:07.

—E. P. Faulkner, of Danville, writes that he has decided to have annual sales and has built a grand good thing in the way of a covered track and 61 large box stalls at a cost of $5,000. It took 229,000 shingles, 200,000 feet of lumber, 250 long posts and 1½ tons of nails. Sale Jan. 27-28, 1893. Jack and Jennet sales Feb. 20.

—A rather small crowd attended court here yesterday and business was generally dull. Capt. Bottom tells us that there were about 25 head of cattle on the market. Ten head of 800-pound steers brought 21; rough scrub cattle brought 1½¢; milk cows $7.50 to $10. A lot of scrub ewes brought $1.50 per head. A good lot was taken down. Plug horses sold at $35 to $55. P. P. Sunneley sold to W. H. Hays a Holstein bull for $15.

DANVILLE

—Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Gregory, of Richmond, Va., are visiting Danville friends.

—Mr. Tim Murphy and family have moved to Geo. R. Davis' property on Lexington street.

—Gibson E. Doran has opened an Oyster saloon on Main street near Bruce's livery stable.

—Mrs. M. P. Robinson, who has been very ill of pneumonia, is now thought to be a little better.

—Elder Clubb, of the Christian Church, Williamstown, and Elder Kendrick, of the Danville church, exchanged pulpits Sunday.

—Miss Sue McDowell is visiting friends in Springfield. Miss Katie Sandifer is visiting friends in Greensburg. Dr. J. W. Guest returned to Louisville Friday.

—John , a colored person from Harrodsburg, hallooed "Hurrah for Cleveland" on 21 street, Thursday evening, and came near getting his dog-eared head lights knocked out of him.

—Some of the colored folks have not given up the election yet. An old colored cook says that "Mr. Blaine catch two halloot boxes floating down the river and soon as another one is found Mr. Harrison will be elected."

—Jailer F. M. Shumate arrested and took to Harrodsburg, Thursday evening, a negro named Frank, Dean charged with stealing a horse from J. P. Carr, of Mercer county, about 10 days ago. Another party implicated in the same transaction has not yet been arrested.

—J. R. Mairs, Geo. Mahan, Thomas H. Bell, Mrs. Ellen Lyle and Miss Nan-nie Barbee are candidates for postmaster here. Miss Barbee is a first cousin of Mrs. Stevenson, wife of the vice president elect. J. R. Dodds and Jack Bonta want to be store keepers in the revenue service.

—Alex Camden was drunk election day and undertook to clean out Harrison Devine, at Parksville. Devine warned him to keep his hands off of him, but Camden persevered, when Camden knocked him down and cut him several times with a barlow knife. Judge Brewer, of Parksville, heard the case and dismissed Devine, the proof showing a clear case of self defense.

—The Diemologian Society of Centre College telegraphed its congratulation to Vice President-Elect Stevenson and Friday evening received the following reply:

BLOOMINGTON, ILL., Nov. 11, 1892. MESSRS. HARRIS, WILLIAMS AND RULE, Committee, Danville, Ky.: My hearty thanks to the Diemologians. In Hoc Signo Vincas. A. E. STEVENSON.

General Stevenson was a member of this society when a Centre College student.

—Mrs. Ella D. Duke, wife of Col. Wm. Duke, died Sunday night at 10:30 o'clock of peritonitis. She had been ill for several weeks, but became much worse several days before her death. Mrs. Duke before her marriage was Miss Ella Duer-nson, of Louisville. She was a sincere Christian woman and had many friends. She left no children. Funeral Tuesday at 10 A. M. Services by Rev. E. M. Green, D. D.

—Eph Holt and Ben Brock, white men, were brought from Junction City Monday morning, charged with stealing a coat and vest at Russell's brick yard from Jim Crouch six weeks ago. The coat was found on Holt. When brought before Judge McFerran Brock said that he loaned the coat to Holt, whereupon Holt was released. Brock says he purchased the coat at a vest from Sam N. Kirk. The matter is to be investigated Wednesday.

—W. L. Reed has sold his lot on Broadway, on which his residence burned last week, to J. K. Briggs for $2,500. Mr. T. P. Embury informs the Intension Journal that a fine diamond ring, a fine watch and chain, a lot of silverware and other articles of value, in a Saratoga trunk, belonging to his deceased wife, who was a daughter of Mr. Reed, were lost when the house burned. Mr. Embury was in the South at the time of the fire.

—Judge McFerran Monday morning dismissed the case against Mac Moore and James Carter, charged with attempted robbery at Junction City several weeks ago. Mr. Rosel, one of the alleged witnesses, said nothing like an attempt at robbery occurred, and Mr. Roseneauer, another one, said he was so full of booze that he did not remember what anybody did, said or thought. Thus, as was predicted in this column a few days ago, another big case (?) has ended in smoke.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

—Gov. Francis will be solidly supported by Missouri democrats for the post-master generalship.

SIX : PAGES.
EVERY FRIDAY.

The democrats seem to have captured the earth and the fullness thereof last Tuesday. They not only retain the Lower House of Congress by an enormous majority, elect their candidate for president with nearly 75 votes in the electoral college to spare, but it looks now that they have also captured the Senate. There are 25 vacancies to be filled and of these it is stated that the democrats will name 13, the republicans nine and the populists three, making the next Senate stand democrats 44, republicans 40 and populists 4. As the latter will likely vote with the democrats our supremacy seems certain even if the States in doubt prove that they are still republican. For the first time in 30 years or more the democrats will be able to pass a law and they will signalize their return to power by passing such as will benefit the whole people instead of a favored few.

The Temps, one of our most valued Parisian exchanges, is a long ways from the seat of war, but it takes up the situation in the United States pretty accurately, when it says in its issue of the 10th: "Seeing that the campaign was fought solely on economic issues, it is clear that the Americans feel little, if any, affection for the McKinley hull and the beauties of protection. The American people have also for years past perceived that the republican movement is exhausted; that there was no question of principles at stake and that it was absurdly futile to be carried away by memories of Lincoln and Grant to meet the new requirements of a unique situation."

Gov. McKINLEY has set apart Nov. 24 as a day of thanks for the Ohioans. It is safe to say that it will take a very small portion of the day for the gov. to give his. He is the worse whipped man in the country and will now drop out of sight. By the way, his old district, especially gerrymandered by the republicans to return a member of Congress, elects a democrat, while the whole State is so close on electors as to have required the official count to settle the question.

KANSAS seems to have turned herself loose. Not content with electing an ex-Confederate to Congress from the State at large, she further distinguished herself by choosing a quarter-blood Indian to represent one of her districts in the same body. An alliance man has been elected governor in the Grasshopper State, Weaver has his electoral vote, the people's party has the Legislature and the g. o. p. is nowhere. In 1888 Harrison's plurality was 80,159. How have the mighty fallen!

MR. WATSON is all right. He spoke at the democratic ratification the other night and explained that he was physically unable to mount the raging stump during the campaign, but that he worked in season and out for the triumph of democracy, in which he is more than delighted. Remembering his long and vigorous efforts for tariff reform and the other good things he has done, the boys in the trenches forgive his seeming lack of interest and take him to their hearts again.

No administration has been so signally rebuffed for years as has Mr. Harrison's. He lays the blame of it upon the ultra position his party took on the protective tariff question, but Benjamin might as well admit that it was his own advocacy of the force bill and the other devilries of his party that he connived at and assisted in that sent him and it to their destruction.

JUDGE HOLT, of the Court of Appeals, who was elected as an independent, but went over body and soul to his first and only love, the republicans, this time and got their nomination for re-election, was defeated by Judge Hazdrigt, the democratic nominee for judge of the Court of Appeals, by from 1,000 to 1,500 majority.

The verdict of the people is that all taxation shall be limited to the requirements of an economical government and that every cent taken from the pockets of the people beyond those requirements is no better than robbery.

The newspapers and politicians are amusing themselves fixing up slates for Mr. Cleveland's cabinet, but it is love's labor lost. Mr. Cleveland will at the proper time perform this duty most satisfactorily.

Illinois went republican in 1888 by 22,195 plurality. This time she elects a democratic governor and the full Cleveland electoral ticket by about 20,000. Talk about cyclones! That's an earthquake.

The war seems to be over. Harris, an ex-Confederate soldier, has been elected congressman-at-large in Kansas, the first man to be so honored in the North that ever wore the gray.

LAUREN BLAKELY, of the Newport Journal, is about the only man we know of who can truthfully say, "I told you so." Several days before the election, in answer to a Commercial Gazette editorial, he said that New York, Indiana, Illinois and all the so-called doubtful States would go democratic and he not only proved himself a prophet, but demonstrated that he is a poet from away back in the headlines he gave the election news.

The democrats of Palaski deserve not only the cake, but the whole bakery. The county has usually given one of the largest republican majorities in the State yet this time the democrats elect J. H. Watson sheriff by 21 and come within 120 of securing the circuit clerkship. The cyclone seems to have raged with peculiar intensity in that, the rock-ribbed republican stronghold.

It was indeed a famous victory. Cleveland's popular majority is at least a million and his electoral majority away out of sight.

ELECTION ECHOES.

Montana elected a democratic Legislature.

West Virginia elected a democratic governor and each of her Congressmen are democrats.

Massachusetts gives Harrison a plurality of 27,000, but re-elects Russell governor by 2,000.

Returns from all the Indiana counties except Crawford are in, and Cleveland's plurality is $303.

The latest reports in Minnesota indicate the election of three democratic supreme court judges.

Both sides still claim Ohio, with chances in favor of the republicans. The plurality will be less than 1,000 either way.

Connecticut not only gives her electoral vote to Cleveland, but elects a democratic governor, the first for years.

The official count shows that Chas. F. Joy, republican, has 67 majority over Congressman John O'Neill, in the 11th Missouri district.

The democrats get one of Ohio's 23 electors, but the republicans get the State and Secretary of the State by the skin of their teeth.

The official returns of Rockcastle give Harrison 971 votes and Cleveland 884. Holt, for judge of the Court of Appeals, 970; Hazdrigt 674.

Unofficial returns in Kansas show that the fusionists have secured a majority of nine on joint ballot in the General Assembly, which will take another republican out of the U. S. Senate.

Tennessee democrats did the maelstrom proud. They elected their candidate for governor by 45,000 and rolled up Cleveland's majority over the 70,000 mark, or nearly four times more than in 1888.

Fuller returns from Texas confirm the estimated election of Hogg by 50,000 to 57,000 plurality. The next Legislature, both House and Senate, will be overwhelmingly democratic. Cleveland's majority is over 160,000.

Delaware is the only one of the Solid Southern States that shows a decrease in the plurality for Cleveland. It was 3,441 in 1888; this time it is 589. Bidwell got 559 votes in the State.

The verdict of the Union is the death knell of protection for protection's sake. It is the complete overthrow of the policy of Federal interference in State elections, and more especially the condemnation and damnation of the use of partisan power to perpetuate the control of any man or set of men.—Atlanta Constitution.

The republicans of Kansas have suffered a sore defeat. Returns from all the counties show that the third party have a majority of 4,327 on president. The republicans have saved from the wreck three congressmen out of eight, and the Legislature by the small plurality of one. The populist majority on State officers is slightly below that of Weaver.

Cleveland has outclassed both Harrison and Weaver. He has shown that he represents the public opinion of the Nation. A man of the people, he has been taken once more to the people's heart. A great commoner, he has again been called to a position higher than that of kings. His candidacy was in response to the demand of the people and for once all considerations save those of the National welfare were waived.—Memphis Appeal-Avalanche.

—Mrs. Ashby, wife of a strict member of the church at English, Ind., placed $5,000 of her pin money on that State, Illinois and the general result and won every dollar of it.

—The net balance in the United States treasury has been reduced to $28,601,319, owing to the heavy drain of pension payments. Seven million dollars have been paid so far this month.

—Lee Whittington, of Brazil, Ind., went hunting alone and was accidentally shot by his own gun. He laid down in the snow to wait for assistance, but it came just as he was breathing his last.

—Russell Harrison's paper at Helena, Montana, has had attachments amounting to $84,792 filed against it and the paper is in the hands of the sheriff. Russell is playing in the luck his father is.

—Victory of the constitutional amendment proposition at Fort Scott, Kansas, was assured Friday and simultaneously several saloons were opened in that city, the first time they have been run openly for 12 years.

—Near Ottumwa, Iowa, a passenger train on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul dashed into a caboose, killing four passengers and wounding several others. The trains caught fire at once, which added horror to the scene.

—Preparations had been made to hang William Keck, at Allentown, Pa., and when the sheriff went for him he found him dead in his cell. It is not known what caused his death as his body was not mutilated in the least.

—Hall, democrat, defeated French, republican, for circuit judge in the 26th Kentucky judicial district—a happy result, French being the representative of one of the factions which have caused so much bloodshed in that section.

—Mrs. Mary Cox, of Chicago, like other women, looked under her bed before retiring and found a man. Unlike other women, though, she did not scream, but walked down stairs and after locking the door she telephoned for police aid. It came and a well-known sneak-thief was bagged.

—Phillips, the terror of Pike county, who has killed a score of men, at last met his match. Mr. Peters, of Louisa, is the gentleman. The battle was with revolvers and Winchester rifles and it is said that 400 or 500 shots were fired before Phillips was laid out.

—Not satisfied with the generally effective work of the democrats, the republicans of Big Rock Creek, Mitchell county, N. C., have started in to exterminate each other. In a general free fight at the polls between two republican factions, 20 men were wounded and four of them fatally.

The Crab Orchard municipal election resulted in the election of Ward Moore for police judge and of G. W. Lee for marshal by two majority.

Under the new schedule there will be a double daily connection from Cincinnati to Middlesboro via the Kentucky Central division of the L. & N.

The ladies of the Halls Gap church will give a supper there Saturday night, the proceeds to go towards repairing the church. 15 and help a good cause and at the same time get a good supper.

The bluest man in town is the republican who hateringly went around with $50 to bet on Harrison. It was covered for him and now he loses not only his money but his place on a whisky barrel in a still house.

Heard out of eight by the avalanche of votes, Capt. Harndon is probably too much dazed to know where he is, but we'll wager he knows enough to wish that he had taken the advice we gave him during the canvass to go home and stay there.

With Capt. Vesli's and Robert Fenzel's houses under construction, the rest of the lots being fenced off and the new street already laid off, the litigation—old Portland place—settlement looks as if it will indeed be an addition to our town, which by the way is the best in the State for its size.

Mr. J. R. MARSH, of the Record-Homestead will be an applicant for the post office at Danville, so he tells an Advocate reporter. He filled it most creditably four years and but for losing him from the journalistic field we should be delighted to see him honored with the office again.

A new schedule on the Knoxville Division of the L. & N. went into effect Sunday. The north bound day train now passes Stanford at 12:47 p. m., and the south bound at 1:30 p. m.; the night train south at 12:02 a. m., and the north at 3:17 a. m. The local freight passes at 7:45 a. m. and returns at 3:45 p. m.

The editor of this paper can say what only a few democrats in the State can—that he wants no office, Federal, State, county or municipal, and would not have the best in the land that he is capable of filling. He hopes to see all his worthy democratic friends get what they desire, but he'll ask no one to endorse him, either in bank or for office.

Col. D. G. SLAUGHTER is an applicant for the Crab Orchard post-office and has issued 1,000 sixth sheet bills announcing the fact. He bases his claims on his ability to faithfully discharge the duties, that he is a democrat and a son of a democrat, that he has always voted the straight ticket and never before asked for office. He would fill the bill of requirements as well as the next man.

FREE DEAD.—Saturday Mrs. Jim Broughton and her three little children got on the train at Hazel Patch to go to Crab Orchard on a visit. A few minutes after taking her seat she uttered a slight groan and fell back dead. She was subject to heart trouble and it is supposed that the excitement of the trip caused its failure. The oldest child was hardly old enough to tell its name. The body was brought as far as Livingston and returned.

BRIGHT BACK.—Deputy Sheriff Sam W. Menefee arrived Sunday night with F. L. Clifford, late depot agent here, who was indicted last court for embezzlement. In two cases, one for $770 from the L. & N. and the other for $100 from the Adams Express Co. The North American Guarantee Co., which stands security for nearly all the railroad agents for a certain per cent., has been on the lookout for Mr. Clifford ever since he left here and recently located him at Hinton, W. Va., where he was night operator. A dispatch was sent there last week asking if he was in Hinton, which Mr. Clifford received and turned over to the manager of the office to answer. After obtaining a requisition from the governor, Sam Menefee went to Hinton and locating his man soon had him in custody and brought him thence without any trouble, though he acknowledges he did not enjoy the trip, especially through the West Virginia mountains. The prisoner is now in jail, with bail to the amount of $1,500 required of him. This is a sad ending of a young man of unusual promise, but in nearly every case the sure one for him who persistently carries with the wine cup. Mr. Clifford is one of the fastest telegraph operators in the country, a splendid railroad man and as clever a one as ever lived. He is also a Knight Templar and at the top in Odd Fellowship. He seems to think he will be able to get out of the very bad scrape, but how he does not state.

BEAUTIFUL, rich new goods for the holidays at Danks, the Jeweler's.

HUSTONVILLE was making preparations yesterday to ratify the great democratic victory last night.

For Rent.—Two rooms over Severance & Son's store. Apply to Will N. Craig or Dr. Steele Bailey.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church at Hustonville will give a supper at the Weatherford Hotel Thanksgiving eve for the benefit of their church.

Yesterday was a miserable, miserable court day, so far as money was concerned. It began raining heavily about noon, which added gloom to the general stagnation of business.

I NEED every cent the new now to buy my stock of goods, which I shall shortly open in the new store. This is intended for every one indebted to me. So please call and settle. W. B. McRoberts.

That Lancaster preacher, who asserted that the bar-rooms would open in that place at 10 o'clock the next morning after the election if Santley was elected, seems to have been mistaken. He'll have to get his whisky in Battle Row, still, if he gets it at all.

Mr. GEORGE H. WARREN has sold to his brother, Mr. B. K. Warren, his farming implement, vehicle and feed business for cost. Mr. G. H. is undecided as to his future business, but thinks he will very likely leave Stanford. Mr. Lewis Withers, who has been with the old firm for years will continue with the new.

JUDGE W. E. VARNON desires us to say that he has decided not to yield to the solicitations of his friends in this, Rockcastle and Pulaski counties, to become an applicant for the collectorship. He has been honored by his constituents in a high manner and he intends to serve them faithfully and ask no Federal appointment.

These are the names of some of the applicants for collector of internal revenue in this district: Judge W. E. Walker, Lancaster; J. W. Hughes, Mercer; Sid Rowland, C. H. Rhodes and J. H. Engleman, Danville; A. K. Deany, Lincoln; and O. H. Waddie, Pulaski. In Richmond every other man is said to be an applicant.

The friends of Hon. R. C. Warren, of Stanford, and they are numerous, are anxious that he be made collector of internal revenue for that district over the robbins nest again.—Paris Kentuckian.

Mr. Warren is proud of the compliment, but he is not an applicant. He is for A. K. Deany for that position and a large majority of our citizens will endorse him.

The democrats in their thirst for office seem to have gone wild. There are candidates here for nearly every office from member of the cabinet down, while every other man or woman who meet wants the post-office. Be calm, ladies and gentlemen. It is several months before Mr. Cleveland's inauguration and there will be some more months before he can begin to turn the rascals out.

The will of J. Logan Dawson, was admitted to probate yesterday. He directs that the partnership between him and his son, L. L. Dawson, be settled by sale of their property and after specifying what shall be his wife's dower, he divides his property equally among his children. Messrs. L. L. Dawson and J. H. Bright are appointed executors. Charles W. Terry qualified as administrator of Mrs. Mary C. Terry.

There were 34 ballots thrown out for being marked in the wrong place. Twenty-five of them at least were put in by democrats, who made the cross in the column, but not in the square immediately under the rooster.

Compared with 1888, there was a falling off in the democratic vote of 139 and 1 in the republican of 147, the democratic vote that year being 1,612 and the republican 1,322. The prohibitionists cast 200 for Fisk that year, 14 more than this. With opposition from republicans and prohibitionists Gov. McCreary's vote that year was 1,705. With none this year it was 1,481.

The following was telegraphed to the Courier-Journal from Rowland: "The precinct No. 4, Lincoln county, voted 290 ballots at the election. The polls closed at 4 p. m., the result was announced in front of the booth at 4:41 p. m. and at 5:10 p. m. all reports were in the hands of the county clerk, 14 miles away, and an extra certificate sent to the editor of the Stanford Journal. How is this for good work?"

I HAVE just returned from the city with a very handsome line of fall and winter millinery, to which I cordially invite the ladies of McKinney and vicinity to call and examine. Thanking them for past patronage, I solicit a continuance of same. Mrs. Green Moore.

The celebration will not take place to night. A good many are opposed to any while others are anxious for a blow out, and at this writing nothing had been fully determined upon. If had at all it will occur Friday night.
